NORWICH TOWN

Largely Attended Christian Endeavor Meeting—Earnest Address by Miss Calder of Boston—Forty Hours' Devotion to Open Sunday.

So many were in attendance at the Norwich Christian Endeavor union missionary meeting held Sunday evening at the First Congregational church that extra chairs were brought into the audience room. The societies represented were those of Hanover, Lebanon, Lebanon, Bozrah, Litchfield, Park church and Federated church, Greenville, besides the local society. Miss Helen Badie of Hanover, a member of the union missionary committee, and Miss Helen Avery of Norwich were in charge of the service. There were pleasing solos, Some Day He Will Make It Plain, Miss Bernice Underwood, and Reach Me to Pray, Miss Ruth L. Potter. The Sunday school orchestra led in the hymns sung. A triologue in which Miss E. B. Heath represented money sent for flowers in our country, Miss Olive Saxton money for candy and Miss Helen very money for missions was well given.

Then Miss Badie introduced Miss Helen B. Calder of Boston, home secretary of the W. E. B. duBois fund, an address on Life Giving. A tribute was paid to mothers in honor of the day. Instances were given of heroes, soldiers, sailors, doctors, who have laid down their lives in order that other lives may be benefited. Lives have been devoted to others. Do not die for a cause, but do the harder thing—live for it. When I seek first the kingdom of God I mean in the use of the right attitude towards those who desire to make known the love of God through Christ to all men.

In this country there is a minister for every 600 people, every missionary has 50,000 people to whom to tell the story of Christ. When you say you don't believe in foreign missions, it means that you do not believe in world salvation, in world peace. One of the splendid records of foreign missionary work is the union of the churches at home. The most attractive form of service for Endeavorers is having the right attitude towards those who go to the foreign field, to China, to the Sudan mission in Africa, as teachers, nurses and evangelists. Then whether you serve at home or abroad, you will be a joyous service for your fellowmen.

A season of prayer, the hymn Bless Be the Tie That Binds, and the Missal benediction closed the service.

Guests from Park City, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Maffitt of Williamsburg, and William Maffitt from Bridgeport, were guests of the evening. Mrs. E. B. Calder of Boston, and Mrs. Louis Olsen of the Scotland road on their way to Brooklyn, Conn.
